

How to setup Remote Desktop Access on your PC

Step 1: This one is simple. If you have windows 10 or 7 the app should be preloaded, and you can start it up. The home screen should look like this.

Step 2: All additional information will come from your admin about the computer and logging in.